

CORDOVA CENTRAL, LLC

Cordova Central, LLC. (CCL), an 8(a)-certified Small Disadvantaged Business, currently provides training support, project management, customized computer solutions, exercise support and infrastructure services to the U.S. Government. Certified 8(a) in December 2015, CCL is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Eyak Corporation, an Alaska Native Village Corporation (ANC). As such, Cordova Central works within the tenants of the 8(a) program to provide socio-economic benefits for our community of native shareholders. CCL specializes in providing solutions to our customers by serving as a single point-of-contact resource. CCL has a thorough understanding of federal contracting regulations and offers customers the ability to procure goods and services in an expeditious and seamless manner through the 8(a) program.

Federal purchasers wishing to procure from Cordova Central, LLC using the Small Business Administration (SBA) 8(a) Program may do so by submitting a draft copy of the intended order or contract award to Cordova Central's sponsoring SBA office in Anchorage, AK. The SBA commits to approving the intended orders within three days from receipt of the draft, but usually provides same-day service. Once approved, agencies may submit their orders or contract awards directly to CCL, without needing to engage in a lengthy competitive proposal process.
